

Yarmouk University

Faculty of Physical Education and Sport Sciences

Master's in Physical Education

Program Overview

The Department of Physical Education offers a master's program in physical education in both the thesis and comprehensive exam tracks. The faculty members in the Department of Physical Education contribute to training sports clubs, as well as providing sports consultations in the field of training, managing sports activities, and refereeing sports games. The faculty members in the department also contribute to the growth and development of the Jordanian sports movement in the Jordanian sports clubs, various Jordanian sports federations, and subcommittees. emanating from the Jordanian Olympic Committee and the Ministry of Youth.

Program Objectives

The program aims to prepare professional and academic cadres capable of using scientific research methods and applications in the field of physical education and enriching scientific research in this field, preparing specialists to work in various educational institutions at all stages of general education and higher education with high-quality qualifications, and developing knowledge and skills related to physical education. The program also aims to master skills in physical education. In a way that contributes to raising the level of sports, mastering the skills of planning, implementing and evaluating physical education programs and their management systems and ensuring their quality, providing students with knowledge, information and skills in the field of physical education, enriching human knowledge in the field of physical education, raising the scientific, academic and professional level of those working in the field of physical education, Preparing professional and academic cadres capable of using scientific methods in the field of physical education, keeping pace with developments in the use of physical education technology, and learning about developments and modern teaching methods in physical education.

Program Importance

The importance of the program lies in the need of the labor market, especially the intersection of related sciences in the sports field in light of digital development, developing the professional and cognitive capabilities and skills of specialized cadres in the field of physical education and providing practitioners with the latest cognitive and scientific developments in the field of physical education.

Targeted Groups and Accepted Majors

Physical education teachers, physical education supervisors, specialists with disabilities who teach physical education. The majors that can be accepted into the Master's program in physical education are in the following majors: physical education, educational sciences, business administration, civil engineering, law, marketing, special education, Fine arts, political science, tourism and hotels, media, psychology and sociology.

Job Areas

Arab and Jordanian sports federations, public and private universities, Ministry of Education schools, private schools, Ministry of Youth, sports federations and clubs, sports sector for people with disabilities, fitness and health centers, entertainment and recreation places, physical and sports rehabilitation centers, military sectors, in addition to companies and factories.

Credit Hours and Tuition Fees

The number of credit hours required is (33) credit hours

The fee for one credit hour is (70) Jordanian dinars for a Jordanian student and (225) US dollars for an international student.

Contact Information

Phone: 00962 2 7211111 ext. (2591)

Fax: 0096227211152

Email: physicaledu.fac@yu.edu.jo

Address: Yarmouk University, Irbid, Jordan